

Unlock the mysteries of Human Behaviour

M.Sc. Applied Psychology

This is a two-year postgraduate course offered by NMIMS. It deals with the application aspects of psychological studies in several real-life scenarios and trains graduates in the psychological studies of organizations and industries. It helps to understand how people react to various situations in life, from visual perception to complex social interactions. The application of psychological research has positively affected a variety of sectors ranging from business to education, mental health and sports. Upon course completion, there are many job opportunities available in India and Abroad.

Duration

Two-year full-time program

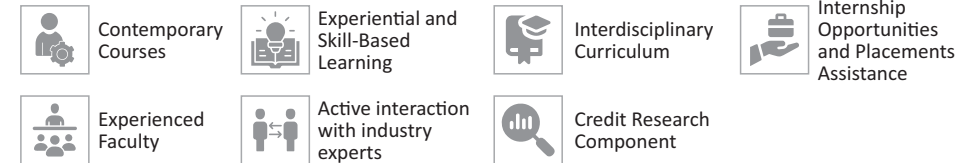

Eligibility

- Bachelor's degree in Science with min 50% marks
- B. Sc. In Science/ Engineering/ Technology or Medicine/ Pharmaceutical Science
- Any discipline of Psychology (B.A. Psychology, B.Sc. Psychology or B. Psy. in Psychology)

Selection Process

Market list based on aptitude test conducted by NMIMS and performance in undergraduate level & personal interview

Program Highlights

Future Career Options

Research

- Research Assistant, Analyst, or Coordinator
- Project and Field Work Expert
- Consumer / Market Research

Industry / Organization

- Behavioural Analyst & Human Resource Personnel
- Business Development & Management consultant
- Training & Development

Education

- Professional in School & Higher Educational Institute
- Career in Counselling or Clinical Psychology

Assessment / Investigation

- Criminal Profiling Investigator
- Forensic Professional

Social Work Sector

- Programme Officers & Welfare Officers
- Community Mental Health Care Professional

Healthcare

- Community Health Advocate
- Healthcare Researcher

Electrifying Events

- Mental Health Awareness Week
- Suicide Prevention Awareness Day
- Movie Analysis
- Psych Film Festival

 022- 4235 5959 / 4233 2249

To know more:  admissions.sos@nmims.edu

 <https://science.nmims.edu>

